

ODE TO MY FACE

Oh face, Oh face, I love you so

But where oh where are you starting to go

Down south you say, for a long vaca

But look what you've done; now I have to pay

I have to pay Dr. Rizk a lot of money

So when he makes his incisions, back up you go honey

Now a note to you Dr. Rizk,

I'm coming to you cause you're the master of the fix

So think young, beautiful, natural, and symmetrical

Remember I don't want to look like I was shocked by something electrical

Not only are you skilled with these wonderful hands, but it's also a pleasure to look at such a handsome man

So Dr. Rizk when all is said and done

I'll remember you as the only one

I'll refer everyone I know for the rest of my days

And you can be assured they'll be able to pay.

Love, DC
