IT'S NO MISTAKE – COURTNEY STILL HAS THAT FACE!

Just in case you were thinking that Courtney Love's “new face” was the result of photo manipulation or unusual lighting, we have a picture of her freshly arrived in New York for the reopening of the Chanel Soho Boutique on Friday. And her face still looks flawless. We're betting that the appointment book of the plastic surgeon, Dr Sam Rizk, who did her facial rejuvenation – is filling up fast.

WHERE COURTNEY LOVE GOT HER NEW FACE

For the past few months Courtney Love, 47, (above in New York) has been walking around with what's been described as a “new face.” Last year she appeared thin and drawn after weight fluctuations. Right now she's in Europe performing and there has been considerable speculation about how she achieved her youthful and undeniably fresh look. Sources say she went to plastic surgeon Dr Sam Rizk in New York and had facial rejuvenation involving fat transfer to her face. The fat supposedly contains stem cells that plump and tighten the skin. Whatever she's doing – it works!
